Police staff working under Commissioner of Police, Bangalore City

874. SRI C. KANNAN (Shanthinagar).—Will the Minister for Home be pleased to state?

a) The number of Policy staff working under the Commissioner of Policy, Bangalore City?

b) The number of Police stations in Bangalore City?

c) The population figures between the dates when these Police Stations were established and the number of Police Stations now required to meet the situation effectively?

SRI B. RACHIAH (Minister for Home).—

a)	1. Civil Police (including Traffic Police)	7201
	2. Reserve Police	3284
		10,485

b) 72.

c) The set-up of the Police Commissionerate in Bangalore City came into existence in July, 1963, when the population of the City was about 16 lakhs. At the time, the Commissioner's jurisdiction had 34 Police Stations. Later, another 38 Police stations (including 2 police Stations for Bowring and Victoria Hospitals) were sanctioned from time to time. At present, the City has 72 Police Stations which cover a population of over 36 lakhs. The existing number of Police Stations is not adequate. The City requires a minimum of 85 Police Stations by the year 1990 to effectively meet the requirements of Law and Order, Crime and Traffic.
